SOVIET TROOPS ARE HITTING BACK HARD ALONG 1,500-MILE FRONT FROM BALTIC TO THE BLACK SEA

Great Battle Is Imminent In Bialystok Area: Russian Paratroops At Large In Rumania

SOVIET TROOPS ARE HITTING BACK HARD AT THE GERMAN FORCES ALL ALONG THE 1,500-MILE FRONT FROM THE BALTIC TO THE BLACK SEA.

GERMAN TANK UNITS WERE ROUTED IN FRONT OF MINSK, THE CAPITAL OF WHITE RUSSIA, AFTER A LIGHTNING THRUST BY SOVIET TANKS, AIRCRAFT
AND ARTILLERY, ACCORDING TO YESTERDAY'S OFFICIAL SOVIET COMMUNI-QUE, SAYS REUTER.

The headquarters of the Panzer corps were overwhelmed.

Reports from Berlin suggest that the German tank force near Minsk is the spearhead that has infiltrated through the Soviet line. Meanwhile, it is reported that a great battle is imminent in the Bialystok area, some 150 miles west of Minsk.

THE GERMAN RADIO STATED YESTERDAY THAT NAZI TROOPS WERE FIGHTING "DEFENSIVE AS WELL AS OFFENSIVE ACTION."

British Mission In Russia

MOSCOW, June 29 (Reuter)— Sir Stafford Cripps, British Ambassador, has also had talks with
M. Molotov, Soviet Foreign Minister, apart from the official reception given by M. Molotov after the arrival of the British military mission yesterday.

The Soviet authorities have done much to make the arrival of the British mission a pleasant one and members are already making contact with the Soviet Service chiefs with the aim of rendering the quickest possible aid to Russia in their struggle against Germany.

The British mission is led by Mr.
Lawrence Cadbury.

Fierce fighting is also reported from Luck, 85 miles North-east of Lwow (Lemberg) and about 250 miles south of Minsk.

The Soviet communique claims that the Russians are firmly holding the Lwow salient against which the Germans have been battering for seven days.

After two days of fighting, German armoured forces brought vast tank engagements north of Kovno (Kaunas) to a victorious conclusion.

Several divisions were encircled and destroyed. Over 200 Soviet tanks, including 29 of the heaviest type, over 150 guns and hundreds of motor vehicles fell into our hands.

ADVANCE IN SYRIA

It is learned in London, says
Reuter, that in Syria, Allied forces have occupied Saba Bizar, 60 miles south-west of Palmyra.

In the Damascus area the Allies have occupied part of Jebel
Mazar. On June 27 the Chehim Mazoud area, eight miles northeast of Sidon, was captured and Saadiye and Es Seyer, nine miles north of Sidon, were occupied.

SURRENDER OF SYRIA?

ANKARA, June 29 (Reuter)—M.
Denot-Mechin, Vichy Secretary of State, had a short interview with the Turkish Prime Minister on Friday.

The French spokesman stated that M. Mechin did not come to egotiate a surrender of Syria.

TRIUMPH OF EVIL CANNOT ENDURE

LONDON, June 29 (Reuter)—
THE POPE, broadcasting from Vatican City today on the occasion of St. Peter and St.
Paul, declared that a triumph of evil cannot endure and appealed for confidence in divine justice.

"Men judge events with foreshortened vision of time. God sees events from on high and from an unmovable centre of eternity. It is necessary to trust in God and to rely on divine justice."

After giving a blessing "for the Italian people and their glorious Catholic tradition and for the whole world which is so dear to us," the Pope gave the Apostolic Benediction.

Shoulder To Shoulder To Defend Frontier

RANGOON, June 29 (Reuter)—India and Burma would stand shoulder to shoulder "should the future ever call on us to defend our frontier against aggression," declared the Prime Minister of Burma, U. SAW, on Saturday.

He was speaking at the Indo-Burmese conference concerning the control of Indian immigration into Burma.

The draft agreement controlling this immigration was signed.

"Indian troops are proud that they have been able to defend the soil of the Sudan and have played a part with their British comrades in arms in the overthrow of the Italian Empire in East Africa," stated that VICEROY OF INDIA, Lord Linlithgow, in the message to the Governor-General of the Sudan.

This message acknowledged the Sudan's gift of £100,000, to be devoted to India's war effort.

MONETARY POWERS OF PRESIDENT

MORE THAN EVER NECESSARY

WASHINGTON, June 29 (Reuter)—
The United States Senate today defeated an attempt to deprive President Roosevelt of his power to devalue the dollar.

The Senate rejected by 40 to 22
votes an amendment by Senator Adams to eliminate the proposed extension for two years of the President's power to cut the gold content of dollars.

Later the Senate adopted currency legislation already voted by the House of Representatives and transmitted it to the White House for signature.

Administration leaders contended that the monetary powers granted originally in 1934 were now more than ever necessary because of the world economic situation.

GERMANS ON ROAD TO MOSCOW

According to the German Wireless, German armoured units have pushed on beyond Minsk and are now on the road to Moscow.

Japan Will Be Faced With "Grave Problems" If Axis Hegemony Extends Across Urals Into Asiatic Russia

TOKYO, June 29 (Reuter)—Japan will be faced with "grave problems" if the Axis hegemony extends across the Urals into Asiatic Russia, declares the Rightist newspaper KOKUMIN SHIMBUN in an editorial.

The paper reports that OUTER MONGOLIA and NORTH-WESTERN CHINA will be seriously affected and therefore the Russo-German war will make it necessary for a clear definition of the geographical limits of Japan's prosperity sphere in East Asia.

The paper continues that the Asiatic new order and the Axis new order in Europe, which are reciprocally recognised by the Tripartite Pact, are at present only vague and lacking in definite limits.

Germany must have started the hostilities with the Soviet Union in the belief that Russia should be placed under Axis influence.

The Kokumin Shimbun declares that if the Axis sphere were to include the U.S.S.R., the Far East and Africa, there is no reason why Italy and Germany should not "recognise Japan's influence over INDIA, AUSTRALIA, IRAN, IRAQ, SAUDI ARABIA and SOVIET TERRITORY east of the Urals."

FINLAND STATES CASE AGAINST RUSSIA

Finland's case against Russia was outlined in a statement by the Finnish Legation according to the New York Times.

The statement declares Russia was engaged in subversive fifth column activities in Finland through Consular agents.

The statement adds that before the present crisis Russia committed a hundred violations of Finnish territory and on 804 occasions Russian planes flew over Finland.

It is noted in London that German troops had been massing in Finland many weeks prior to the crisis presumably in preparation for the attack against Russia.

Hungarian Troops Cross Frontier

LONDON, June 29 (Reuter)—

Hungarian troops have crossed the frontier at several points into Soviet territory, states an official communique issued in Budapest yesterday received in Rome.

"They are said to be in pursuit of the enemy."

The communique adds that Soviet airmen on Saturday bombed the districts of Nagyspanya and Talahorfalva without causing any damage.

FRANCO ASSURES HOARE

Reuter's Diplomatic correspondent learns in authoritative quarters in London that the British Ambassador in Madrid, Sir Samuel Hoare, had a long interview with General Franco on Saturday.

The Spanish Foreign Minister,
Senor Sener, was present.

A wide range of subjects was discussed, among them the recent riots outside the British Embassy.

Gen. Franco expressed himself strongly about the riots which, he assured Sir Samuel, were strongly disapproved by the Spanish Government who would punish the offenders and take all necessary steps to prevent recurrences.

One Year Nearer To Year Of Victory

ATLANTIC CITY, June 29 (Reuter) — "We shall be one year nearer to the year of victory when with the unlimited supplies of war material we can take complete control of the air and land and swift-moving mechanised columns to invade the extremities of the enforced German order," declared SIR RONALD CAMPBELL, the new British Minister in the United States, addressing the Maryland Bar Association.

Sir Ronald added, "Planning points to the autumn of 1942 as the time when this flow of supplies will begin to reach full flood of its impetus. It is not false optimism to believe that 1942 will see Germany on the defensive."

Sir Ronald Campbell declared that the race between American production and the Nazi war machine had already started and added, "I cannot stress too strongly the vital need for all-out effort in the field of production—ships, planes, food, shells, oil and steel. The democracies must have speed and more speed."

Benghazi Harbour Heavily Raided

CAIRO, June 29 (Reuter)—The harbours of BENGAZI and TRIPOLI were heavily raided by British bombers during the night of Friday/Saturday.

An R. A. F. Middle East communique, giving this information, states:

"SYRIA: Yesterday six Vichy Glenn Martin aircraft, which were attacking our troops in the neighbourhood of Palmyra, were engaged by a squadron of the Royal Australian air force flying American fighters.

"Without loss to themselves, the squadron shot down all six in flames.

STORES ATTACKED

"R. A. F. bombers successfully attacked stores and dumps near Palmyra and a railway line, and other military objectives at Rayak.

"CYRENAICA: The harbours of Benghazi and Tripoli were heavily raided by our bombers during the night of June 27-28. Many hits were made on the moles at both places. None of our aircraft are missing from these operations."

55 SURVIVORS FROM TURKISH SHIP

ANKARA, June 29 (Reuter)—
Most Ministers, including the British Ambassador, Sir Hugh Knatchbull-Hugessen, called at the Foreign Office to express condolences at the loss of the Turkish ship Refah.

Hitherto, 55 survivors have been rescued of which four spent three days in the water.

The Turks are still searching for the others and it is understood that British planes and light surface craft from Cyprus have joined in the search.

The ship, it appears, had been hit amidstships which, it is suggested, she was hit by a torpedo from a submarine.

The possibility of a drifting mine cannot be excluded but is regarded as unlikely as the wash of a vessel would normally repel a mine.

INTER-SCHOOL BASKETBALL LEAGUE

1st. Division Final Postponed

Owing to the rain, the First Division final of the current Inter-School Basketball League between Pui Ying Middle School's White quintette and their fellow Green team, which was to have played yesterday afternoon on the grounds of the Kowloon Chinese Y.M.C.A., was postponed.

As both of the two teams are as yet unbeaten, the result of the match will decide the champion-ship.

V.R.C. BASKETBALL SQUADS BEATEN

Although V. R. C. lost both their men's and ladies' basketball matches against Black Cats and Nanyang Commercial Academy respectively at Blake Gardens on Saturday they gained valuable experience which should stand them in good stead in future games.

In the Ladies' match, V. R. C. lost by 20-13, while the men were severely trounced by 43 points to 12.

Miss C. Marques for the losers in the first match played a very good game, while R. Maxwell showed up well for the V. R. C. men.

ALL-COLONY LEAGUE

Seven teams, Victoria Recreation Club, Chinese Y. M. C. A. "A" and "B", South China, Sing Tao, Hong Kong Police Indian Contingent and United Friends, have already entered for the All-Colony Basketball League, sponsored by the Chinese Y. M. C. A.

Entries close today and the League is expected to commence in mid-July.

DYEING HAIR SAID DANGEROUS

BY C. N. CHRISMAN, M.D.

New York.—The fad for tinting the hair a different colour from what nature intended it to be is a great mystery to me. True, the colour of some hair is a travesty on beauty, and one can hardly be surprised that the owner wants it some other shade. Then there is the friend of ours who said, "When I was a child, the Lord made me suffer from my red hair by giving it to me; since I am growing older, I intend to keep it that way if I want it. And she goes the whole way in keeping it red as red hair can be.

If I wanted my hair some other colour from the natural one, I should take no chances about changing it. There are professional cosmeticians, skilled surgeons who specialize in beauty problems, and all sorts of folks who really know the beauty trade. When there is your own family doctor, who is usually interested in how his patients keep up their looks. Any of these could give you safe advice on colouring your hair.

I can't take time or space for warning against harmful dyes. The government is taking pretty good care of that now. Also we know there are many vegetable colourings that are dependable and quite innocent. Sage, henna, walnut, lemon juice, camomile will all change the colour of the hair. They do not give a wide range of tints, and the real extracts or effusions are more expensive than some mineral or chemical preparation, but they're much safer.

GOOD RECIPES

In Grandmother's day, even that long ago, there was a recipe that was considered good. Wool fat, two ounces; nut gall, four drams; vegetable charcoal, one dram; sodium chlorate, four drams; orange peel juice, one ounce; distilled water, one ounce. The gall is made from fresh green walnut hulls. Unless you want the colour pretty dark, use less fat.

The use of any preparation on the hair that is sufficiently strong to change the colour is, of course, likely to change the texture also. It could hardly be otherwise. I do not say that everyone who dyes his hair is likely to have serious trouble, but I have known many cases that do have. We fought for years against the use of harmful dyes that contained lead. Metallic dyes of any sort are likely to be dangerous and cause skin troubles that may persist and be very hard to overcome. Colouring matter may poison one person, yet be harmless to another. We are different in our physical makeup, and must be considered individually.

Practically any head of hair may be greatly improved by changing one's way of living and caring for the hair. Diet has much to do with the hair, and ill health almost shows up in the hair the first thing. Exercise, fresh air, careful brushing and keeping the hair clean will all help us have lovely hair, no matter what colour it is.

FIERCE FIGHTING IS REPORTED IN REGION OF TOWNS OF MINSK AND LUTSK

Soviet Army Command Claims Rout Of German Tank Units

MOSCOW, JUNE 29 (REUTERS)—THE SOVIET ARMY CONTINUED ITS FIGHTING WITHDRAWAL on the northern front on Friday to prepared defensive positions, states a Red Army communique. Towards Minsk a large German tank attack was repulsed. German headquarters routed, a German general killed and 40 German tanks destroyed.

The German offensive in this sector is directed against Minsk and the main thrust is being made through Lithuania. The Russian withdrawal was carried out from positions north-west of Vilna and from Vilna itself.

Another German drive through Lithuania is directed against Leningrad.

In the central sector, the German drive aims at capturing Moscow, via Minsk.

Preparation for a large-scale German offensive near Skutsk, on the Bessarabian front, were disrupted.

DANUBE FORCED

Soviet troops, supported by a river flotilla, forced the Danube on Friday night, capturing favourable position and taking 500 prisoners and 11 guns.

The communique adds: "Throughout the whole length of the front from Przemyśl to the Black Sea our troops are steadfastly holding the frontier."

The Russian Black Sea fleet is reported to have co-operated with the Red Air Force in the bombardment of Constanza.

JOINT COMMUNIQUE

A joint German-Rumanian communique states that the action continues from the mountains of Bukovina to the sea.

"Our troops," it claims, "have attained their objectives everywhere," though it makes no specific mention of these objectives.

Referring to the Danube battle, the German-Rumanian communique admits the Russian attack by inference when it says: "Operations are in progress in the Delta of the Danube."

A Berlin communique claims that the Red Air Force has been "so crippled that only a few planes were needed to cope with it." Russian headquarters, however, state the Red Air Force was active all day, inflicting a heavy defeat on the Luftwaffe.

In Berlin, the German press significantly is underlining the severity of the fighting and stresses the strong Russian resistance.

The Nazi papers report the burning of villages and crops, "presumably due to the Russian policy of devastation."

The following German communique was published yesterday:

"From the Fuehrer's Headquarters, German High Command reports of our great successes in the eastern theatre of war will be published in special announcements tomorrow (Sunday)."

NAZIS ROUTED

In a communique broadcast from Moscow yesterday dealing with the Southern sector, the Russian Information Board stated: "One of our cavalry divisions completely annihilated the Sixth Regiment of the enemy which made attempts to cross the River Pruth."

"Following the battle on the banks of the River Danube, 300 more prisoners have been captured."

"On all sectors of the front, from Przemyśl to the Black Sea, our troops have repulsed numerous enemy attempts to penetrate into our territory. Our armies hold firmly the State frontiers."

"Our air force during Friday carried out operations against enemy mechanised forces in the direction of Siaulialo, in Lithuania, Vilna, Minsk and also Lutsk, in southern Poland, heavy losses being inflicted on the enemy."

FIERCE FIGHTING

The Russian High Command communique describing the fighting in the centre of the 300-mile long front, says: "The fighting was particularly fierce in the direction of Minsk and Lutsk, on June 27."

"As a result of a lightning thrust by our tank formations, aircraft and artillery in the direction of Minsk, German tank units and headquarters of the 38th Tank Corps were routed."

PREMIER'S MESSAGE TO YUGOSLAVIA

LONDON, June 29 (Reuters)—A message from Mr. Winston Churchill to all Yugoslavs was broadcast in the Serb and Croat bulletins yesterday on the occasion of the anniversary of Kosovo Day.

After recalling Yugoslavia's struggle for unity and liberty Mr. Churchill said: "Serbs, Croats and Slovenes take heart. In commemorating today your glorious dead who fell as heroes for honour and justice we join with you in reaffirming our common faith in the future freedom of Yugoslavia."

PETER'S APPRECIATION

LONDON, June 29 (Reuters)—The heroism of British doctors and Scottish women nurses in Serbia in the last war was recalled by King Peter of Yugoslavia in a broadcast last night on the occasion of the great battle at Kosovo for Yugoslav independence.

"I come among you," said King Peter, "not as a stranger in exile but as a friend and even a kinsman for my mother is related to your beloved Royal Family."

He recalled that as a boy he was educated for a short time in England, adding: "I know and love your country."

He spoke in the language all freedom loving people understood, "the language of the heart," that centre of truth that so many clever men neglect.

Gen. Gamelin Escapes From Riom Prison

LONDON, June 29 (Reuters)—The German radio yesterday quoted a Vichy report that General Gamelin, Commander-in-Chief of the Franco-British armies until the Sedan disaster in the German blitz last year, has escaped from prison near Riom.

Police all over France are searching for General Gamelin, and two men have been arrested in Clermont-Ferrand on suspicion of helping him to escape on Friday morning.

General Gamelin was arrested in September for "acts contrary to the interests of the State" and, together with other French leaders, such as Daladier and Reynaud, was awaiting trial at Riom.

CANADA TO ENLIST WOMEN IN HER DEFENCE FORCES

OTTAWA, June 29 (Reuters)—Canada is to enlist women in her defence forces for home duty and possibly for service overseas, according to Mr. Joseph Thruson, Minister for National War Service, in an interview yesterday.

Women will serve chiefly as transport drivers, cooks, telephone operators and clerks.

Colonel Ralston, the Canadian Defence Minister, stated that the current two months recruiting campaign for men for overseas service was satisfactory and the objective of 32,400 men should be reached by July 12.

Col. Ralston also announced that additional men will be called up in Canada for home defence.

DR. QUO TAI-CHI:

RUSSO-GERMAN WAR CLARIFIED THE INTERNATIONAL SITUATION

CHUNGKING, June (Reuters)—"The Russo-German war has clarified the international situation, placing all powers resisting aggression in the same bloc," declared Dr. Quo Tai-chi, new Chinese Foreign Minister, interviewed on the airfield on arrival here from Kunming.

An air raid alarm in Kunming in the morning delayed his departure but no raiders approached the Yunnan capital.

Welcoming Mr. Quo's arrival the Chinese Army organ "Sao Tang Pao" pointed out that the new Foreign Minister has already made an important achievement in the exchange of letters with Mr. Cordell Hull concerning American abolition of extraterritorial rights in China, which took place while he was en route to China from London via Washington.

BURMA ROAD

Mr. Quo said the latest developments, including the Russo-German war, were favourable to China and added the friendly powers were giving all possible aid to China.

The Burma road had once been occupying as much attention abroad as the Atlantic. He was impressed by the condition of the road, hoping further improvements would be made.

Nebek Captured By Allied Column Following Lightning Sweep North From Damascus

CAIRO, June 29 (Reuters)—In a lightning sweep from Damascus, an Allied column has reached Nebek, 35 miles north-east of the Syrian capital, or nearly half way.

This is just beyond the coastal sector capture of which was announced earlier. Another column west of the Homs road, which was attacking Sand Naya on Thursday, has now pressed on beyond that place but is meeting with opposition.

Meanwhile the main body of the Imperial forces, advancing to the coast, made a four-mile advance, reaching a wadi (dried-up water-course) north of Kassaba, within 15 miles of Beirut.

Strong offensive patrols are debouching inland here with the object of silencing French artillery commanding the coast road and attacking the Allied flank.

These have captured a number of villages.

The Royal Navy is shelling the French lines half way between Sidon and Beirut.

REARGUARD RETREAT

South-west of Damascus the Allies are advancing north of Merj Ayoun and are approaching Firdussi, one and a half miles south of Hasbaya, to which the French rearguard is retreating to link up with their main body.

West of Hasbaya the Allies have reached Jis Hasbani, evidently with the intention of encircling the former place.

Similar tactics appear probable at Palmira the pipeline fortress in central Syria.

The Allies have occupied Saba Biar, 60 miles south-west of Palmira, with the object of sweeping round and cutting off any retreat to Homs.

NEBEK CAPTURED

The Allied troops are continuing their forward movements along the Damascus-Homs road north-west and north of Damascus, a communique from British G.H.Q. in Cairo announced yesterday.

Nebek, it is added, has been captured, and there has been further local activity in the centre and coastal sector in Syria.

There is no change in the situation Tobruk, in Libya. In the frontier area there has been some patrol activity.

ABYSSINIA SITUATION

In Abyssinia, two Italian camps south-east of Chelga were raided during the night of June 24.

During the following night British troops crossed the River Didessa although the Italians had destroyed the bridge there.

During the day the Italian position on the river's west bank was occupied.

The retreating Italians are being allowed no rest by the Patriots.

During the night of June 25/26 British troops operating west of Lechemti crossed the River Didessa although the Italians previously had destroyed the bridge.

The enemy position on the west bank of the river was occupied on June 26, the only enemy accounted being quickly disposed of.

The advance north-west of Jimma is continuing.

The striking force is thought to have swept deep inland after crossing the French coast. Only a few dull explosions were heard on the English side of the Channel.

About an hour later large formations returned in groups flying high. Most of them appeared to be fighters.

Formations passed over the coast from two different points, and the track of some of the fighters could be traced by white vapour trails many miles over the sea off Boulogne.

Anta-M-IXL Selection Trust Ltd. Annual Report

The annual meeting of the Anta-M-IXL Selection Trust, Ltd., was held at the registered offices of the Company, No. 12, Des Voeux Road, Central, on Saturday.

Shareholders present were Fr. Nova, Messrs S. Hampden Ross, W. I. Alexander, M. W. Sayers and D. Black.

Addressing the meeting, Mr. Forbes McLeod, who presided, said:

Mr. Fraser Brown has been actively engaged in Africa during the past year attending to the Company's interest there. He is unable to be present with us here today and has forwarded a short report on the African properties in which the Company is interested. I shall now read you what he says:

It is gratifying that the annual reports on your two African investments have been issued up to time and I trust you are satisfied from reading those reports that your directors are doing everything possible to overcome all obstacles placed in the way of smooth operation by present conditions.

NEW SAZA MINES, LTD.

This company, in which you now have an interest of £110,000 out of the total authorised and issued capital of £150,000 continues to live up to its early promise.

A dividend of 20 was declared, payable on Nov. 30, 1940, but due to present exchange regulations the actual payment from New Saza Mines, Ltd. to Anta-M-IXL Selection Trust, Ltd. was blocked in London. However, New Saza Mines, Ltd. is allowing Anta-M-IXL Selection Trust, Ltd. interest at the rate of 7 per cent. on the amount of the dividend and is meantime putting the cash to good use on the property.

RHAWBA MINES, LTD.

The milling plant at this company's property is not yet operating pending the arrival of the electrical equipment ordered from General Electric Company of England.

Efforts are now being made to take delivery of such parts of the order as are ready for shipment and to cancel the balance and order from the United States.

Meanwhile development work in the mine is being continued with a skeleton staff pending the arrival of the balance of the plant.

(Sgd.) J. FRASER BROWN.

DAYTON DREDGING CO.

During the year your Directors decided, after careful investigation had been made, to invest the sum of U.S.$125,000 in the Dayton Dredging Company of Dayton, Nevada, U.S.A., which Company commenced operations at the end of 1940. This Company is a limited partnership organised under the laws of Nevada, U.S.A. and the participation of Anta-M-IXL therein is equivalent to 22,335 shares.

The property is a large gravel deposit containing a developed yardage of 11,384,270 cubic yards with a recoverable value of 217 cents (U.S.) per yard. Costs of operation are estimated at 6 cents per yard, and after allowing for depreciation, depletion, interest and taxes the project should return a net profit of $932,000.00.

The equipment used in the operations consists of a Bucyrus Erie dragline and a floating washing plant. The former, with a 14 cubic yard bucket is the largest in the United States, and the washing plant, which is able to more than amply feed, can handle more than 20,000 yards in 24 hours. In spite of the huge size of this equipment it is of flexible assembly and can therefore be transported with facility to other dredging districts. It is the plan of the Dayton Dredging Company to get maximum utilisation out of this equipment by moving it to other fields after the Dayton deposit has been worked out.

The adoption of the Annual Report and Accounts for 1940, proposed by the Chairman, was seconded by Fr. Nova and passed unanimously.

OTHER BUSINESS

Mr. S. Hampden Ross proposed, and Mr. R. H. Hunter seconded, the re-election of Messrs J. Fraser Brown and H. T. Fox as Directors.

On the proposal of Fr. Nova, seconded by Mr. M. W. Sayers, Messrs. Percy Smith, Seth and Fleming were re-elected auditors.

REGISTRATION OF DENTISTS

The Medical Department warns that a prosecution will, without further notice, be commenced against any unregistered person found to be practising dentistry on or after July 1, 1941, contrary to the provision of the Registration of Dentists Ordinance.

Section 3 (1) of the Registration of Dentists Ordinance, 1940, provides that after the expiration of a period of six months from the commencement of the Ordinance no person shall practise dentistry in the Colony unless he is registered under the Ordinance.

The period above referred to expired on December 31, 1940.

CONVERSION UNIT TEST SUCCESS

Col Julian S. Liang has arrived back in Hongkong following a successful experiment on the Burma-Yunnan Highway with his "Semi-Gas Conversion Unit," designed to run motor vehicles on kerosene and diesel oil.

It was reported that the Chinese Government was so satisfied with the experiment that it has placed a large order for the supply of the units.

It may be recalled that Col. Liang, with the assistance of a mechanical engineer, Mr. Lau Brunnia Foon, completed the invention in December last year in Hongkong, after which he proceeded to Rangoon to carry out the experiment on the Burma Road.

It was said that the unit, which can be produced at $250, can be installed in motor vehicles of any make.

A PROTEST AND AN APPEAL

TWO SUBJECTS of the greatest concern and importance to the Colony in its general relation to the war were publicly ventilated at the last week-end. One was the vehement protestations which were expressed by speakers at the meeting of the Husbands' Evacuation Committee against the Government's decision to send away British women and children from Hongkong and the second was the strikingly eloquent and sincere appeal which His Excellency the Governor made in a broadcast on the necessity for increasing the Colony's war effort. The meeting of the aggrieved husbands preceded His Excellency's address by three hours and a quarter it would have been better if the order of these two events had been reversed, because we feel certain that if those who gave vent to their feelings and grievances at the meeting of husbands (and no one denies that they undoubtedly have rightful cause for grievances) had listened to His Excellency before they stood up to air them, outraged as they probably feel about the whole subject of evacuation, they would have tempered their views as to the methods to be adopted by way of remedy and sought a solution in a less impassioned way. As it was, the suggestions of tax evasion and demonstrations, however orderly conducted the latter might be, were in striking contrast to the response which His Excellency expects from the community and might have just the opposite effect on the authorities who were responsible for the terrible evacuation muddle.

NO ONE has any hesitation in agreeing that the Government blundered hopelessly in its evacuation policy. From its very inception, error after error was permitted to occur with a thoughtlessness and lack of foresight, combined with a stubborn secretiveness, that was solely responsible for the point of exasperation which soon became apparent. Driven to stand at bay against the criticism of its policy, the Government sought sanctuary in shifting the burden of responsibility to the War Office at Home. This attempt to excuse the offence the authorities had given only aroused further resentment, because it immediately became clear that either the Home Government had been wrongly advised of the actual situation in this part of the world or that the instructions received from the War Office had been stupidly misinterpreted in putting them into operation. What the local authorities cannot explain away at the moment is why discrimination was allowed to influence them in the conduct of the evacuation scheme. Quite rightly, this has become the crux of the whole unpleasant position today and the most extraordinary feature of this ill-conducted policy is that the Government continues to

LAST NIGHT

A male, Yu Wai, 43, of no fixed abode, was reported to have collapsed and died while walking in Oak Street, Takoktsui, yesterday.

It is believed that while he was attempting to scale a high wall, Cheung Wan, 44, of No. 134 Argyle Street, fell and fractured his skull. He was admitted to Kowloon Hospital.

While walking in Shanghai Street near Argyle Street yesterday, Hang So, 18, of No. 1010, Canton Road, accidentally slipped and cut his hand with a piece of glass.

Fung Wing wah, 14, of No. 18, Shantung Street, ground floor, reports that about 4.30 p.m. on Saturday, while delivering papers at Bute Street, he left his bicycle outside the pavement, and when he returned, two minutes later, it was missing.

permit this discrimination, knowing full well the feelings they have aroused. They have even added fuel to the fire now by engaging the services of a woman from Home to assist in the War Revenue Department!

THESE ARE facts which the Government have very properly been called upon to explain, but those who listened to His Excellency's broadcast on Friday night would have appreciated the meaning of the words which he quoted as having come from Canada and Australia on the war effort which the whole Empire is making today—"We will withhold nothing that is within our power to give." Threats of tax evasion and strikes are hardly compatible with such sentiments. The breaking up of homes and the separation of families can count nothing in comparison to the effort which this Colony should make to help the cause for which the British Commonwealth is now fighting with, as His Excellency put it, "its back to the wall." His Excellency made a very appreciative reference to the very subject which engaged the attention of the Colony's aggrieved husbands three hours previously and he may have something more hopeful to say when he goes before the microphone again tomorrow. The public in Hongkong, the aggrieved husbands included, should first and foremost respond to His Excellency's appeal for a further tightening of their belts and, in the meantime, seek and obtain redress of their grievance through saner and more unostentatious methods.

AIR WAR ON TWO FRONTS:
24-HOUR OFFENSIVES BY R.A.F. PROBABLE SOON

"There has never been a theatre of war in which the collection of full and accurate information has been so difficult than in the attack on Russia," said MAJOR OLIVER STEWART, M.C., A.F.C., the well-known authority on aviation, when he broadcast from London on Saturday on what was known of the Russian Air Force and the problems which Germany would have to face in her new campaign, particularly from the air point of view.

"The distances are so great," continued Major Stewart, "that we cannot expect to be accurately informed of what is happening to size up the problems that are facing two big air forces in the battle which is going on now."

RUSSIA'S AIR FORCE

Major Stewart declared that the Russian air force was chock full of ideas. In the use of aviation in war, Russia had gone ahead more than any other country in the world. In fact, many of the German ideas of aviation in war-time had been taken from the Russians. Russia had never shown that timidity in air development which had held back other countries. Many of their ideas were looked upon as "impracticable," but most of them had now been proved in action. That was the rough generalisation of the position.

Turning to some of the special influences which are at work on this new battle-field, Major Stewart referred to the fact that Russian centres of industry were very widely scattered and that distances between them were very great. The main value of a modern air force was to work in complete co-operation with the army. A great deal of army equipment could now be carried by air, but there were still much of it that had to go by land.

"In order to sustain an air attack on a major scale," continued Major Stewart, "there must be a steady flow of supplies to the advance bases. The Germans have shown themselves extremely competent in bringing up their supplies even in the face of heavy attack."

IMPORTANT FACTOR

"A great deal will, therefore, depend on how extensively the Russian air force can harass the German lines of communication. Communications in Russia are also difficult, roads and railways are scanty."

Major Stewart compared objectives in Britain to objectives for air attack in Russia. In Britain, he said, these objectives were closer together. In Russia these objectives were few and far between. Most of the Russian industrial centres were out of reach of the German bombers.

"The Germans are very miserly about their bombing and always try to make for objectives that are not far away and which will not call for much expenditure of fuel," continued Major Stewart.

LITTLE KNOWN

"One of the things which the present battle will see a lot of is the shock absorbing effect on widely-scattered objectives. An aerial attack takes a deal of organisation. It needs a lot of material to be assembled so that a country which can absorb the enemy's bombing without hardship will increase its power of resistance."

"Although Russia has an enormous population, her centres of industry are scattered, but as I said at the beginning, we do not yet know much of the air war in the east and we shall find a good deal of difficulty in getting such information."

"It is not whether Russia can be attacked, but whether an air attack can be assembled on that front. All we know is that the Germans have sent strong forces and have, to some extent, reduced their strength on the west. The R.A.F. has, therefore, seized the opportunity to strike hard at German territory. This western offensive may help a little to ease the pressure on the Russian front."

"The strength of our air attacks on Germany may make it necessary for the Germans to withdraw some of their air force from the east and bring them back to Western Germany," continued Major Stewart.

R.A.F. OFFENSIVE

Major Stewart then went on to deal with this R.A.F. offensive. In the past, he said, Britain had not attempted to sustain any air bombing attacks on the west of Germany by daylight. The reason was that this kind of attack had to be very heavy to be effective. The Germans had also found that out last year. As a result only a few experimental attacks were made by day. It was found that bombs could not stand against interceptor fighters. The Germans had plenty of these and it would have been an error to attempt large daylight raids.

Britain's day bombing fleet would have suffered too heavily to make the operations worthwhile. But directly it was known that the German air squadrons were beginning to move some days before the actual attack on Russia began, day bombing started to supplement Britain's night attacks. The result was that the Germans had suffered heavy losses.

"Such attacks are limited by the range of our fighters," declared Major Stewart. "It is much shorter than the range of our day bombers. But if the R.A.F. found it possible to dominate the German air force to such an extent that German operations are hindered, it may be possible to send out large bomber formations further afield."

"We may be getting near to the time when we will be able to attack Germany with twenty-four-hour offensives that is our final objective, to dominate the sky in all areas where the Germans are found so that our bombers can operate without heavy loss."

"So that is the air war as it is being waged on two fronts in the east and west," concluded Major Stewart. "Against the Germans in the east stands the Russian air force. In the west there stands the R.A.F. We will not fail to make use of the opportunities that are presenting themselves and for once the Germans may have to take as many blows as they can give."

NEW SKATING RINK

There was a capacity crowd at the opening of the King's Skating Rink, Hennessy Road, on Saturday night, and spectators were treated to some of the best entertainment seen at a skating rink. The instructors were seen in some fancy and trick skating. Mr. E. J. W. Thornton, of the Middlesex, delighted with two spectacular jumps.

KIM SHING CUP PRESENTATION

Despite the inclement weather yesterday, the Kowloon Skating Rink, Mongkok prizes in connexion with the Kim Shing Cup competition, were presented by Mrs. K. C. Cheng, wife of the manager of the Rink.

An exhibition was given by Miss Hazel Moy and Messrs. E. J. W. Thornton and E. B. Nanak.

Following are the prize winners: Kim Shing Cup and ten souvenir badges won by the Hongkong and Kowloon Residents' Union; Green and White team (runners-up) received a silver cup and ten souvenir medals, while Royal Scots, Middlesex and Kowloon Skating Rink each received a banner and ten souvenir badges.

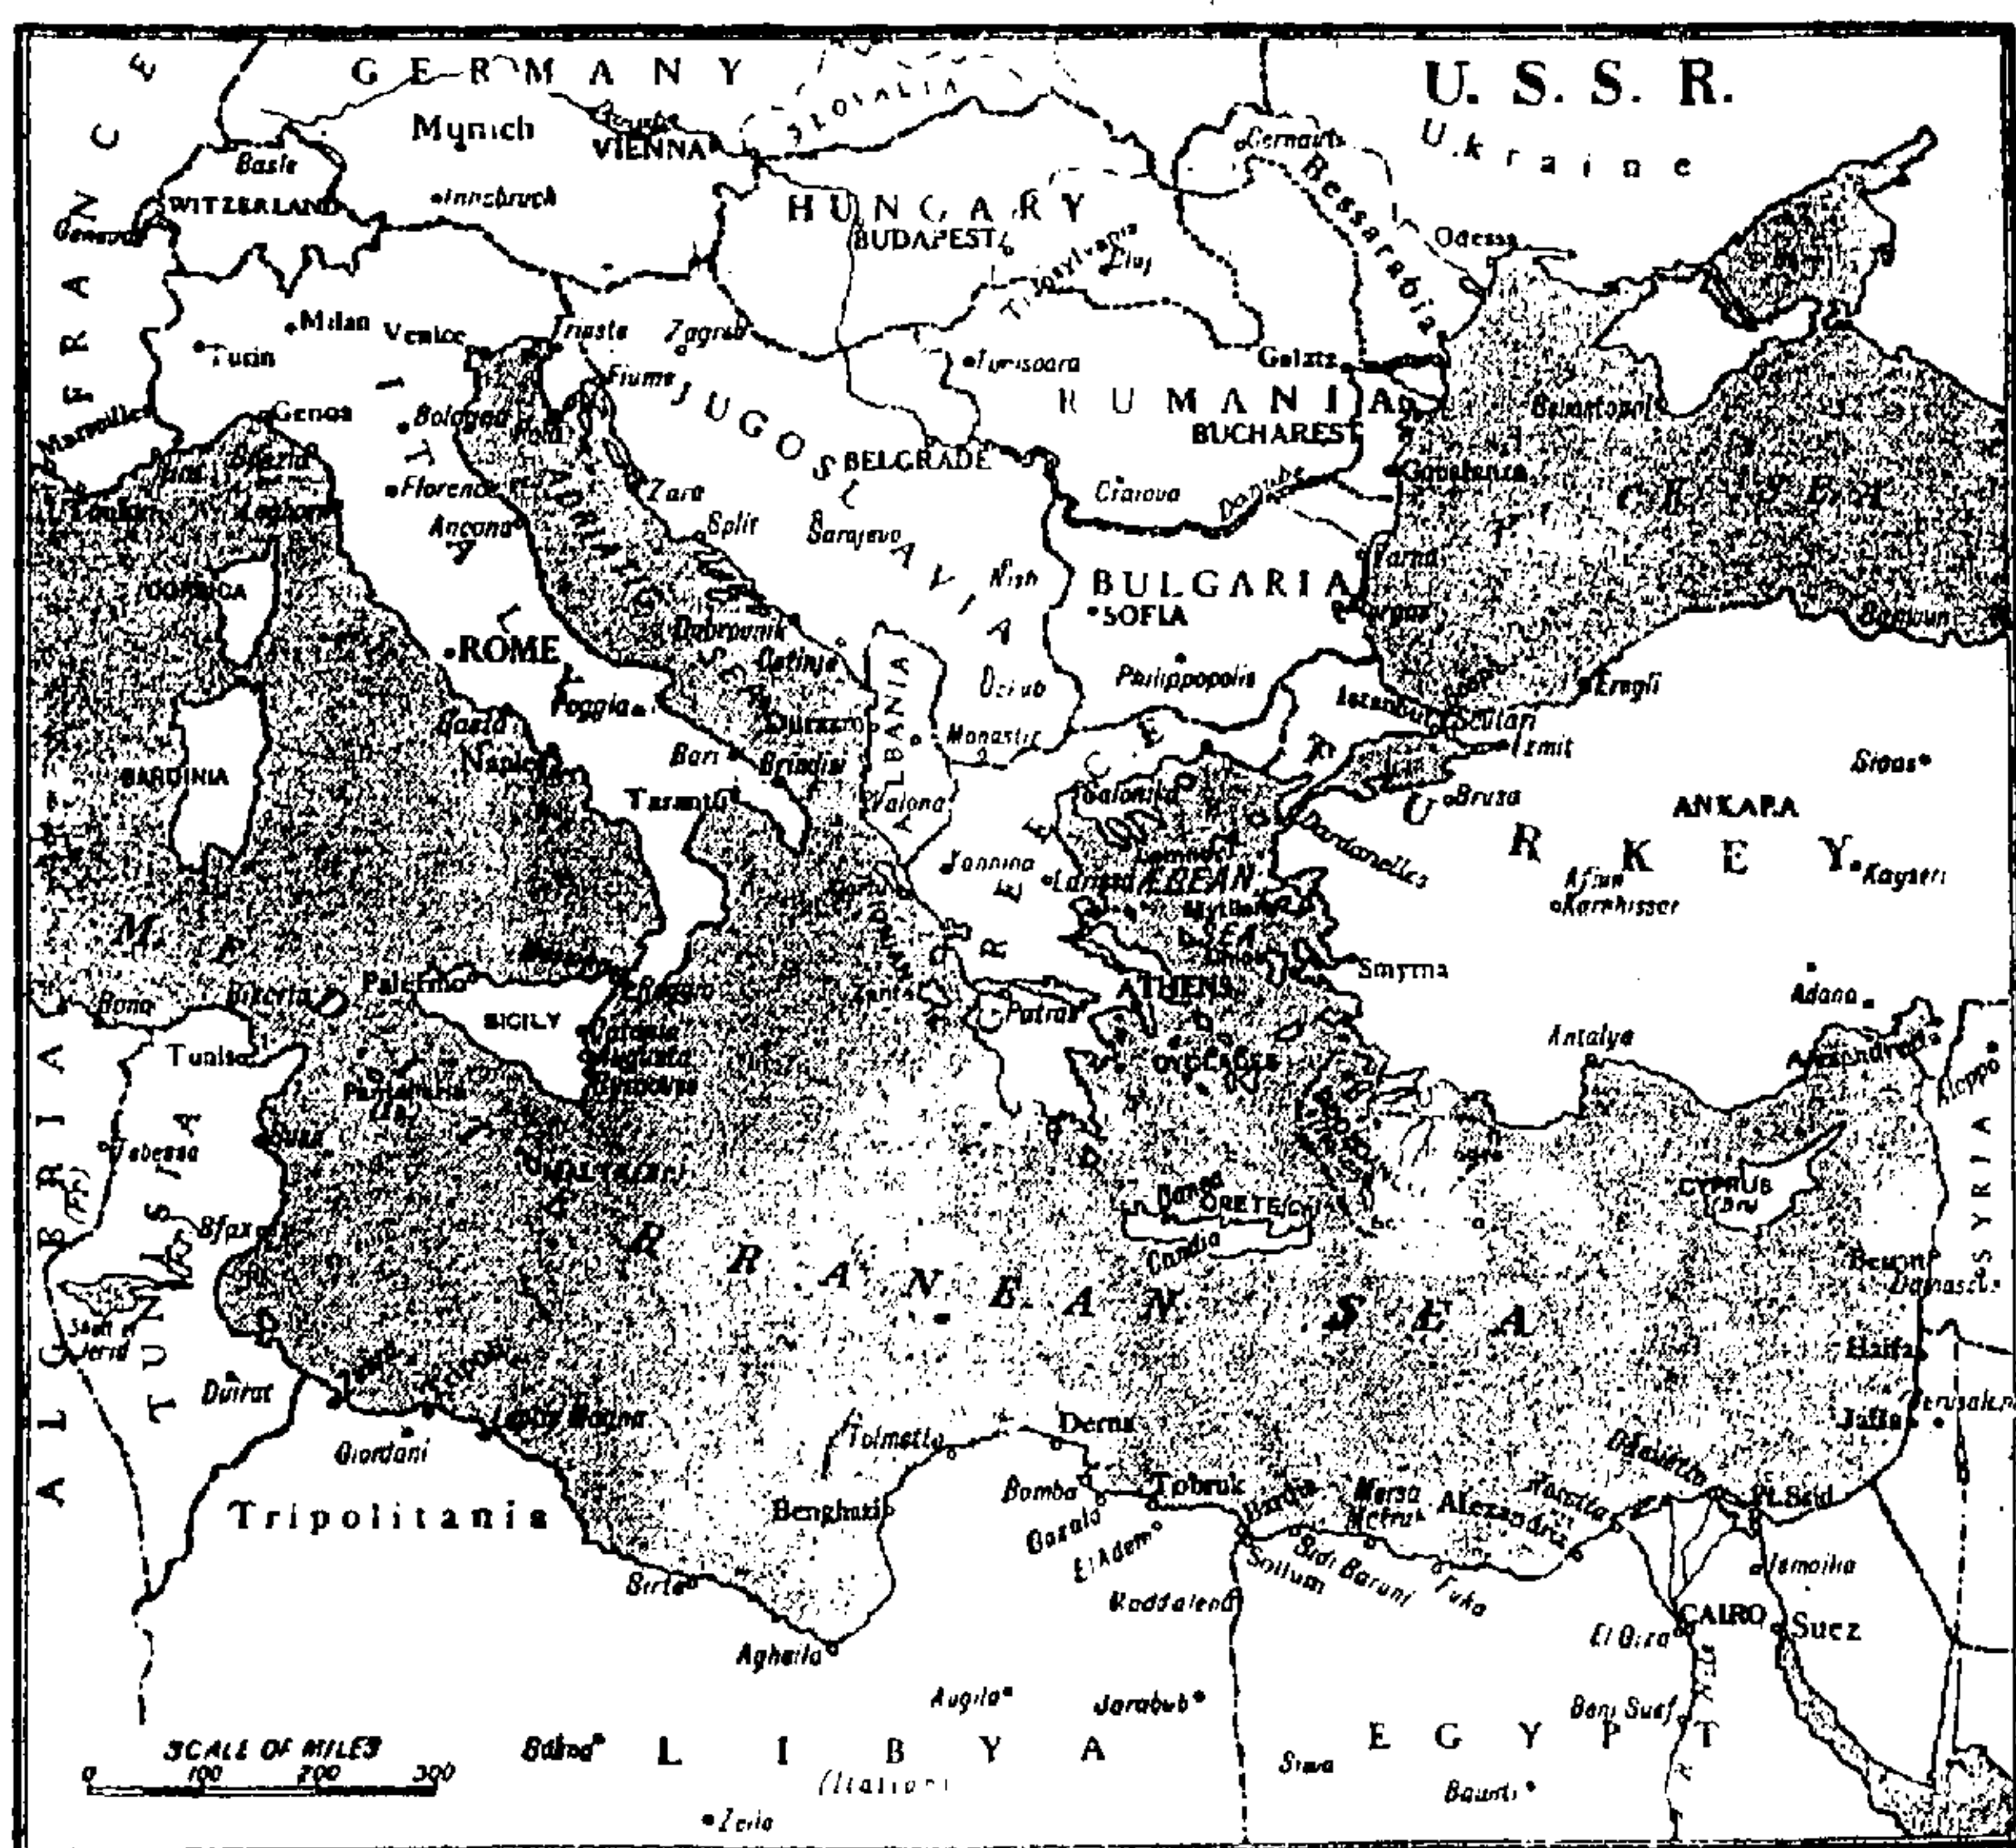

At the conclusion, a basketball match on roller skates between the Residents' Union, champions and a Rest team was played, resulting in a win for the latter by 27-25.

REST: P. K. Chan (6), R. Irwin (5), E. B. Nanak, K. L. Chan, Y. C. Young (6) and Ko Chi (10).

UNION: H. K. Wong (10), W. H. Leung (6), K. W. Wong (6), C. W. Shum (4) and S. K. Shum.

CUT BY POLE

A most unusual accident took place yesterday about 5.50 p.m. when Chan Kwan, 36, married woman, residing at an unnumbered hut in Cheung Sha Wan, had her head cut open by a bamboo pole which dropped on her outside No. 1020, Canton Road. She was sent to Kowloon Hospital.

SOVIET FORCES FIGHT HARD ON WHOLE FRONT

enemy have made reconnaissances in strength, but all attempts to invade Russia have been beaten back.

The German News Agency says that Field-Marshal Baron Manstein has issued an appeal to the Finnish people to prepare for a fresh crusade against the Russians.

It is also stated that Albania "considers herself at war with Russia."

Soviet troops manning the front line in Przemysl, in southern Poland, to the Black Sea are also reported to be holding firm.

No concrete claims have yet been made by the German High Command but yesterday they promised that "our great successes in the Eastern theatre in special announcements tomorrow" (Sunday).

A communique issued by the High Command of the German and Rumanian forces disclose today that Soviet paratroops are at large in Rumania but adds that most of those who landed have been captured.

The Germans were reported on Saturday to have launched an attack against Russian territory in the Arctic.

Swedish Press reports from Berlin say that Nazi troops from Norway are marching across the tundras of Northern Finland towards the Kola Peninsula. The Soviet port of Murmansk, through which Russia got her supplies from America in the last war—is evidently their first objective.

ALPINE UNITS

According to the NYHETER'S Berlin correspondent, the Nazi forces which are heading east along the only road across the frozen wastes are chiefly Alpine units with a number of bridge-building pioneers.

Simultaneously, German bomber squadrons are reported to have taken off to attack underground hangars built by the Russians in the Kola Peninsula.

Finnish artillery are reported to have begun to bombard Russian defence lines round the Hango port at Finland's southern tip which was leased to Russia after the Russo-Finnish war last year.

Russian planes based on Hango have been extremely active in bombing the surrounding country particularly the nearby harbour of Ekenaes.

Passengers arriving at Stockholm from Martheham report that Russian aircraft flew over Aaland Islands on Wednesday and Thursday without dropping any bombs.

According to the Nyheter's correspondent in Berlin, Finnish troops have been sent to the islands which were demilitarised by Finland at Moscow's request last year.

The TIDINGEN'S Helsinki correspondent says that eight Russian Consuls, with 30 members of their staff, arrived at Helsinki from the islands. The Russian Minister to Finland was still in Helsinki on Saturday night, with part of his staff, though the remainder left many days ago.

WEEK'S FIGHTING

The war in Russia has been going on for a week and there has been heavy fighting, writes Ruter's Military correspondent.

It is still an early day to see clearly what the Nazi strategy is aiming at, but there are faint indications from which it is possible to draw some conclusions.

A week ago I suggested that the Nazis might be striking two main blows—one towards Kiev and one towards Vilna and Thess, via Smolensk, on to Moscow.

Developments during the last week point to this being the first both in their plan and though both blows have been delivered with heavy forces and carried out with energy, the next step will not be decided until the result of these resolute attacks, which extended for all practical purposes over the whole vast front, could be seen.

Then, wherever success has been met with, wherever weakness had been discovered, further reserves would be thrown in on the side where there had been progress and success would be exploited with relentless energy.

WHOLE THEORY

This is in keeping with the whole theory of war held by the Nazi Army and they apply it equally to a battle front of 20 miles or 200 miles or, as in this case, 1,500 miles.

The weak spot in the Russian line is apparently, in the north. This may be because the ground is more favourable and more free of obstacles there than in the south where the Carpathians and their rugged spurs are to be found and where large rivers like the Pruth, Southern Bug and Dniester bar direct advance eastwards.

The weight of the Russian forces also may have been more in the south than in the north, though we have nothing as yet to help us in arriving at any definite conclusion as to their dispositions.

However, one thing is fairly clear so far and that is that the Nazi advance is being held from Lwow (Lemberg) southwards for about 500 miles to the Black Sea, while to the north and north-east, they have made considerable progress.

Confidence In Russia's Ultimate Victory

LONDON, June 29 (Reuter)—Confidence in Russia's ultimate victory was expressed in yesterday's editorial in PRAVDA, organ of the Communist Party.

The paper states: "The war is only beginning. It may not end soon. Our head will not be turned by victories in individual battles or separate failures."

"A war in which millions are participating is a complicated struggle. One thing we know—victory will be ours."

This indicates the firm and hard tone of responsible opinion.

Moscow, little queues can be seen outside mobilisation points in the various districts of Moscow as the process of calling up proceeds

200 MILES ADVANCE

In the direction of Minsk, they have advanced some 200 miles. It is here that they seem to be pushing up reinforcements and feeding their front, while to the south they appear content to batter at the front for the moment with troops already there.

It is possible that the aim now of the Nazi General Staff, having discovered a weak point, will be to push on resolutely towards Moscow to break the Russian centre and cut Russian forces in half.

Moscow is not only the political heart of Russia but it is the principal centre into which almost all their railways run and from which they emerge to feed the enormous perimeter of the country's commerce.

The capture of Moscow would be a tremendous blow to Russia. High Command. Every effort will be made to prevent this.

The Nazi advance towards Minsk seems, however, to be merely a bold thrust forward of one of their armoured columns and it does not seem to have disorganised the Russian front.

On the contrary, the Nazis seem to have been heavily counter-attacked and punished.

HEAVIER THRUST

Another large and heavier thrust towards Moscow, aiming at more decisive results, will probably be made by the same means, namely by the use of powerful reserves which are brought up to counter-attack and cut off enemy forces who may have effected penetration.

This is the right way to fight a modern battle with modern weapons. In open country with no obstacles it is not by the use of large numbers holding ground at any cost that advance must be maintained, but rather by powerful blows delivered by reserves and with great rapidity against the flanks of any enemy who have made penetration.

Russian troops so far have not only fought well but they have been tactically well handled though the bombing of towns behind the German lines does not seem to have been anything like a heavy enough scale to produce any result worth talking about.

Bombing, to have any effect on land targets, must be heavy and it must be sustained.

ADMIRAL CUNNINGHAM'S HISTORIC SIGNAL DURING BATTLE OF CRETE

"ENEMY SEA-BORNE TROOPS MUST NOT BE ALLOWED TO LAND IN CRETE. WE MUST NOT LET THE ARMY DOWN. STICK IT OUT."

This historic signal from Admiral Cunningham, Commander-in-Chief, Mediterranean, to ships under his command provided the scheme for an account of naval operations during the battle for Crete by Commander Anthony Kimming, following talks with naval officers who had taken part, when he broadcast from London yesterday.

"The moment it was clear," he said, "that the Hun was going to invade Crete, the C-in-C ordered all available warships, particularly light forces, to concentrate in certain positions in that area."

FIRST ACTION

They raced at full speed from Alexandria, Malta and wherever they happened to be to reinforce their comrades on the spot.

Describing the first action—the night of May 21 when Rear-Admiral Glennie, flying his flag in the cruiser Dido, raced for Canea Bay accompanied by other cruisers and destroyers, Commander Kimming said:

"The German convoy was escorted by Italian destroyers and when Admiral Glennie's force suddenly crashed into them out of the dark they offered little resistance."

"The Italian destroyers admittedly lost all some torpedoes but in a most erratic manner and all missed. They seemed determined to defend themselves with gunfire and made off at full speed but not before one of them had been sunk."

FIRST ROUND

"After that it was money for old rope. Transports were sunk by torpedoes and gunfire."

"The moment our ships opened fire on the wooden schooners known as caiques Hun soldiers came tumbling up from between decks and leapt overboard. They were all in full heavy equipment."

In several cases these caiques were rammed. There's many a ship in the Mediterranean Fleet today with a proud dent in her stem.

"And so the whole of that first German landing force was sent to the bottom while our ships came away unscathed. First round to the Navy."

TACTICS CHANGED

The second action took place in daylight next morning, the Germans having swiftly changed their tactics.

On that occasion Rear-Admiral King, flying his flag in Nalad, raced with cruisers and destroyers to intercept a convoy escorted by one Italian destroyer.

"But this time it was daylight. The convoy was within

"ERSATZ TSARS"

MOSCOW, June 29 (Reuter)—"Ersatz tsars" is how M. David Zaslavsky, the well-known Russian commentator, described the candidates said to have been designated by Herr Hitler for the throne of Russia.

Either Prince Ludwig Ferdinand, second son of the ex-Crown Prince and husband of Princess Kyra of Russia, or Princess Kyra's younger brother, it is reported to be declared tsar.

Princess Kyra is the second daughter of the late ex-Duke Cyril.

60 MILLION

M. Zaslavsky says, "According to the German Fascist plan, the Russia they are preparing will be a state with a population of 60 million, consisting of Moscow province, the Ukraine, the Baltic, the Caucasus, Bessarabia and Poland."

"Leningrad and its province have already been given to Finland by Herr Hitler. The rest of Russia is of no interest to Herr Hitler."

M. Zaslavsky says that the order of such "a childish idea" could only be Herr Hitler and adds "German Fascism carries in its train historical corpses whom it wants to put on the neck of living people. This is evidence that Fascism represents a dead ideology."

U.S. OFFICIALS TO SEEK DECLARATION OF NATIONAL EMERGENCY

WASHINGTON, June 29 (Reuter)—The United States Administration, it was reliably reported on Saturday, has decided to ask Congress for a formal declaration of a National emergency in order to give President Roosevelt, as Commander-in-Chief, a free hand in defence moves.

The War Department, according to informed sources, has urged such a declaration which would permit of indefinite retention in service of selective service trainees and also the National Guards and Reserve Officers.

Officials pointed out that a declaration by Congress of a National emergency would give the President power to order troops to points outside the Western Hemisphere.

Such a declaration by Congress would also give President Roosevelt other powers lacking under the National Emergency Proclamation which the President has already issued himself without formal concurrence from Congress.

NORMAL GERMAN COMMUNIQUE

BERLIN, June 29 (Reuter)—A normal German High Command communique, which is not part of the official series being issued, today says that in North Africa

R.A.F. Attack On German Convoy

LONDON, June 29 (Reuter)—Describing an R.A.F. attack on a German convoy, the Air Ministry communique states:

"R.A.F. bombers on Saturday night attacked a German convoy off the Island of Ameland. An anti-aircraft vessel and two supply ships, each of about 8,000 tons, were bombed. One of the supply ships was set on fire."

None of our aircraft are missing. "Yesterday afternoon aircraft of the Bomber Command encountered a number of enemy fighters over the North Sea off the Dutch coast."

"In the ensuing engagement several enemy fighters were damaged and one probably destroyed. "One of our bombers is missing."

SLIGHT ACTIVITY

LONDON, June 29 (Reuter)—German air activity over Britain last night was again slight.

An Air Ministry communique states: "Last night there was a small amount of enemy activity over Eastern England. Bombs were dropped at a few places at one of which a small number of casualties was caused and some damage done."

FIVE DESTROYED

LONDON, June 29 (Reuter)—The Air Ministry announces that it is now known two more German fighters, making a total of five, were destroyed during R.A.F. offensive operations over the Channel and Northern France yesterday morning.

Both these additional machines were destroyed by a Polish fighter pilot who was himself later shot down by other German fighters. He was rescued in the Channel.

This pilot is the one previously reported safe.

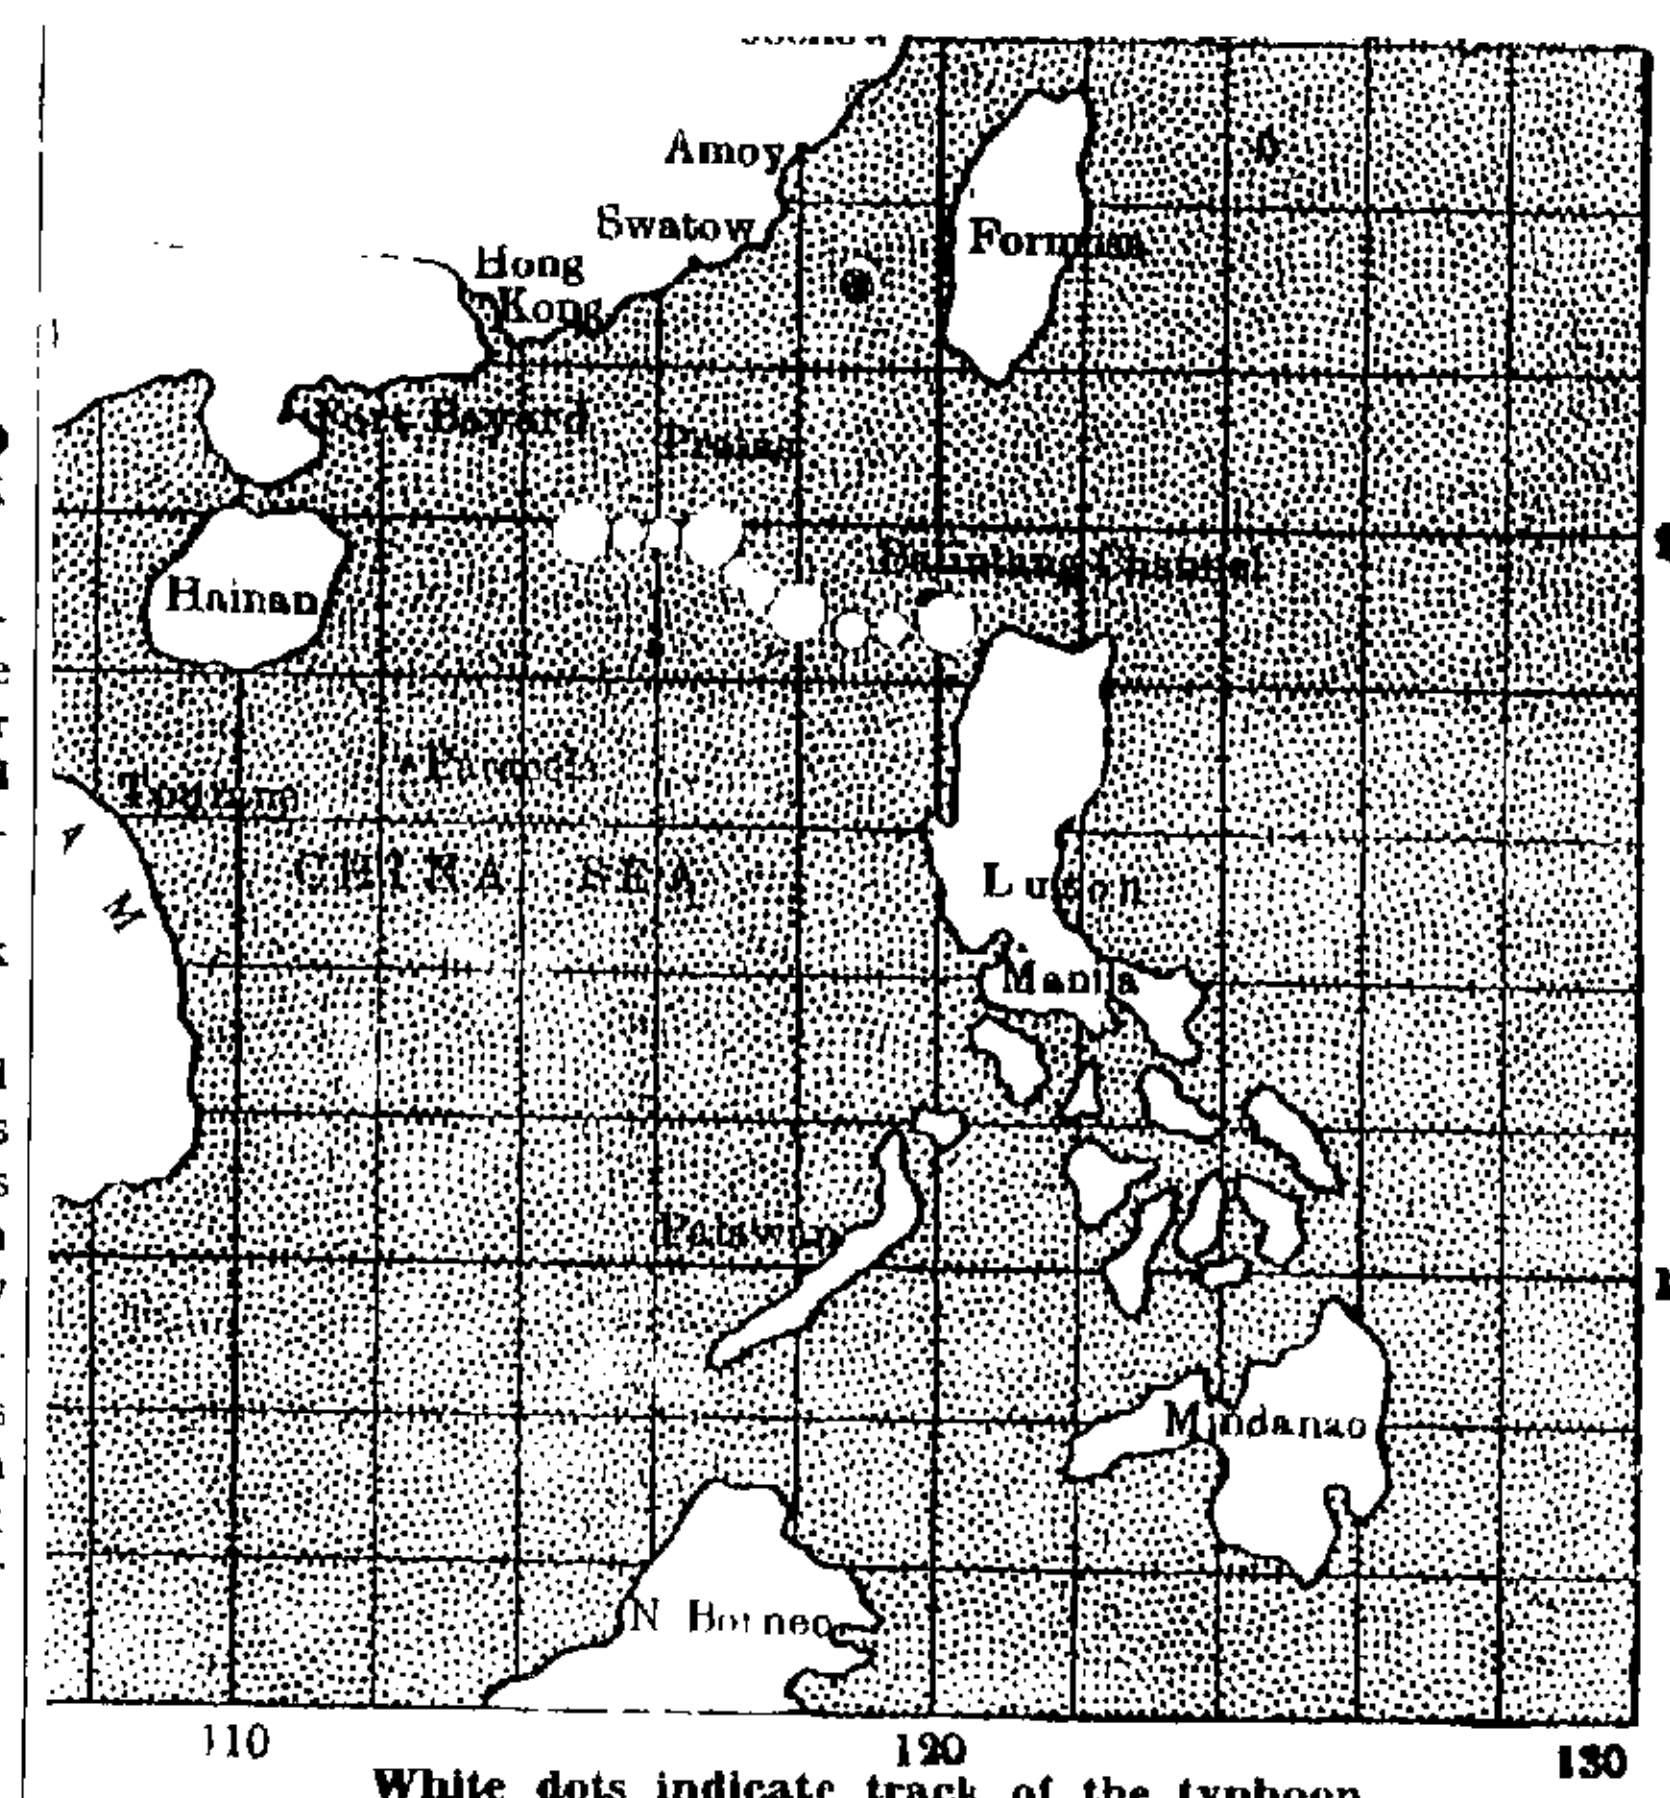

60 U.S. MARINES FOR LONDON

WASHINGTON, June 29 (Reuter)—The Navy Department announced on Saturday that a small detachment of Marines has left for London "to facilitate communication between the various United States offices located there."

The detachment consists of three officers and 60 men.

The announcement added that "consequence to the great expansion of separate offices there this service has been needed for some time." [The Marines will also help as fire-watchers and thus "serve to relieve the over-burdened Embassy staff".]

German planes attacked British motorised columns between Sid Barrani and Sollum and that there were no British operations over Germany yesterday, day or night.

TYPHOON PASSES SOUTH

The first typhoon of the year to occasion the hoisting of local signals passed south of the Colony about 10 o'clock last night, moving away on a W. N. W. course.

Formed over the Caroline Islands on June 23, the typhoon crossed North point of Luzon on Saturday morning, losing considerable intensity in doing so.

Entering the China Sea it took a W. N. W. course and at 6 a.m. yesterday morning was about 50 miles south of the Pratas. It did not regain its intensity while crossing the China Sea.

To Hongkong, it contributed 0.21 inches of rain up to yesterday evening.

The No. 1 signal was hoisted on Saturday afternoon and the No. 7 (gale expected from N. E.) at 8.15 yesterday morning.

At 9.15 p.m. the typhoon was reported to be 80 miles south by east of the Colony.

DELAY IN ARRIVAL

According to Mr. Guilherme d'Almeida, brother of Rafael d'Almeida, who sailed on the 55-ton brigantine, "Our Lady of Peace" from Hongkong on June 18 for Manila with Col. Juan L. Calvo, the reason for the delay in the ship's arrival in Manila was that the boat might have taken a southerly route in order to avoid the typhoon.

HARBOUR OFFICE WARNING

The following warning to all craft has issued by the Harbour Office in regard to some 30 junks and two lighters in the Dangerous Goods Anchorage, Lai-chikok, that are at anchor without exhibiting anchor lights.

The notice states:

"Should the No. 1 Typhoon Signal be hoisted at any time, these junks and lighters will be shifted to the Dangerous Goods Anchorage in Tsun Wan Bay, and anchored there under the same conditions as when anchored at the Lai-chikok Dangerous Goods Anchorage until the Typhoon Signal is hauled down, when they will then revert to their former anchorage at Lai-chikok."

SALE OF ALLIED WEEKLY BANNED

SHANGHAI, June 29 (Reuter)—The publication and sale of the new local Allied weekly "ARGUS" in the French Concession was banned by the French Consul-General in Shanghai.

No explanation accompanied the ban which, according to the NORTH CHINA DAILY NEWS, took the form of a curt letter refusing authorisation to sell the Argus in the Concession.

The weekly contains war news, pictures of the war and other world events and cartoons which are of general interest to the Allied community in Shanghai.

The action of the local authorities follows closely the withdrawal of authorisation recently granted for the British Garden Fair in aid of British war funds to be held in the French Concession.

Appeal To Falange Party

MADRID, June 29 (Reuter)—An appeal to "the Falange party to participate in the fight against Russia" has been issued by M. Arrese, a member of the Cabinet and the Secretary of the Falange party.

Recalling Germany's aid for Gen. Franco during the Civil War and the "sufferings of Spain" at the hands of Russia, the statement declares: "We must give satisfaction to our dead and to assure the existence of our heirs. We have to revenge Spain."

Today, it is added, Spain limits her action to freeing her youth so that they may enter the "great European crusade."

Devastating R.A.F. Attacks On Germany

LONDON, June 29 (Reuter)—The growing intensity of the British air offensive against Germany has been clearly revealed during the week ending June 27.

Every night during this week great attacks were launched against industrial centres and ports of north-west Germany. The most extensively raided towns during these devastating attacks were Dusseldorf and Kiel, both of which were attacked on five nights during the week under review. Cologne was attacked on four nights out of seven while Bremer, Wilhelmshaven and Emden were each attacked twice.

The gathering momentum of the British air offensive is even more strikingly shown by the regular daylight sweeps by British fighters and bombers over the Channel and Northern France.

Targets included goods yards at Hazebruck where an ammunition train blew up and the bridge collapsed. An industrial plant at Bethune and the power-station at Comines were also attacked during these daylight sweeps.

In addition to succeeding in their main objectives, the British raiders destroyed far more machines than they lost. The best day's total was June 22 when 30 German fighters were destroyed while the R.A.F. lost only two machines and the pilot of one was saved.

From these extensive and ceaseless operations by day and night 34 British aircraft failed to return though three of the pilots were saved. Against this, 109 German fighters are known to have been destroyed.

German raids on Britain during the same period, were on a small scale. Nevertheless eight German bombers were destroyed against the loss of only one British machine, the pilot of which was saved.

SOVIET PLANES DESTROYED

LONDON, June 29 (Reuter)—A German communique claims over 4,000 Russian planes destroyed in seven days for the loss of 180 planes.

COAL LAUNCH ATTACKED

ALLEGED RAIDERS BEATEN OFF

A fight ensued in the Yaumati Typhoon Shelter on Saturday night when flocks of a launch loaded with coal tried to shove off an attempted raid staged by 10 Chinese.

It was reported that the launch belongs to Messrs. John Mannors and Company. Shortly before midnight on Saturday, 10 Chinese approached the coal boat in six sampans. The fight started when the four flocks challenged the raiders who had come aboard to remove some coal.

Shooting Off Naval Docks

Royal Naval Dockyard Police fired five rounds on Saturday morning at a sampan containing a man and two women who, it is believed, were attempting to steal coils of steel cable from the Dockyard at Kowloon.

An Indian constable, who first sighted the sampan at 5 a.m., fired three rounds at it, whereupon the boat made away as fast as it could.

Sgt. Kemp of the Dockyard Police also fired two rounds and it seemed that one of the people in the sampan was hit.

A few minutes later a steam launch set out from the Dockyard in chase of the sampan but could not locate the craft.

SWEDISH WATERS MINED

LONDON, June 29 (Reuter).—The Chief of the Swedish Navy has announced that Swedish waters east of the southern area of Oeland have been mined in order to facilitate the work of the Swedish patrol, says the official German news agency.

Shipping is warned to obey minutely the regulations of navigation in these waters which will be given by patrolling craft.

vate cemetery at Tai Chak Wo Village, the Police applied for permission to withdraw the charge on the ground that it was not a good one.

Wong was, however, additionally charged with returning from banishment. Pleading guilty, he was sentenced to three months' hard labour on this count.

TRESPASSERS FINED

Chan Chan was fined $50, or two months' hard labour, and Chan Shui-yau, Wu Chi and Lee Pun, $25, or one month's hard labour each, when they pleaded guilty to the charge of having trespassed in a prohibited area, namely, No. 4 Hill, Shing Mun Mines, without the permission from the Water Works Department.

Sgt. Groves prosecuted.

DANGEROUS GOODS

Kwan Cho was charged before Mr. Houston on Saturday with having on board the s.s. Kwong Foo, of which he was the master, 350 tons of kerosene with a view of exporting them without a licence from the Controller of Trade.

Defendant was further charged with having anchored in a prohibited place, namely, Cheung Chau Harbour, on June 27.

Prosecuting, Sgt. Hughes said that at 4 p.m. on June 27 he boarded defendant's launch at Cheung Chau Harbour and found 350 tins of kerosene on board. Defendant, who was in charge of the launch, said that he did not have a licence from the Controller of Trade, adding that he did not think a permit was necessary.

Mr. Peter H. Sin, defending, submitted that he had no case to answer. The reason why defendant anchored where he did was to wait for a lighter going to Chinese territory. This lighter, said Mr. Sin, had an export licence.

Mr. Sin's submission was accepted by his Worship and defendant was accordingly discharged on the first count.

On the second charge, Sgt. Hughes said that the Police was pressing the charge as the launch was lying alongside a junk. There was a fire on board the launch, went on Sgt. Hughes, and various persons were smoking on board.

Had a fire occurred on board the launch, continued Sgt. Hughes, all junks in the vicinity as well as the Island of Cheung Chau would be involved as there was a south-west wind blowing at that time. The prosecuting officer then drew his Worship's attention to the prevalence of such offences.

In mitigation, Mr. Sin pleaded that accused was ignorant of the law and that defendant made no attempt to conceal the kerosene. Kwan was convicted and fined $250. The kerosene was ordered to be confiscated.

MARINE COURT

Chan Lo, 29, steersman of a fishing junk No. 1737C of Macao, was fined a sum of $15 at the Marine Court on Saturday when he appeared before Cmdr. J. Jolly on the charge that he had on June 27 entered his craft into the West Lamma Channel Minefield without lawful authority.

ANTI-COMINTERN PACT

Accord Due To Lapse This Autumn

LONDON, June 29 (Reuter).—When Japan signed the Anti-Comintern Pact on November 25, 1936, it was to last for five years and consequently should lapse this autumn.

By the terms of this Pact the signatories agreed to inform one another of the activities of Communist International, to take severe measures against Communist propaganda and to set up a permanent committee to further these ends.

Now, Berlin political circles refuse to discuss at the present juncture any possibility of revising the Anti-Comintern Pact between Germany, Italy and Japan directed against Communist International, says the official German news agency from Berlin.

The Secretary-General of the Comintern since 1935 has been the Belgian-born George Dimitroff, hero of the Reichstag fire trial in 1933.

U.S. POLITICAL ADVISER FOR GENERALISSIMO?

Aid For China Is Beginning To Take Substantial Shape

WASHINGTON, June 29 (Reuter).—American aid for China is beginning to take fairly substantial shape and it was learned reliably here yesterday that one measure in connexion with this will be the appointment of an American political adviser to General Chiang Kai-shek.

His name has not yet been announced but it is reported confidently that he is Mr. Owen Lattimore, the noted authority on Far Eastern affairs, particularly China and her border problems, and present head of the Walter Hines Page School.

An official announcement to this effect is expected in a few days.

Precisely what the duties of the political adviser will be, is not known but it is believed in Washington that the appointment will not be by the State Department but by the White House and will be connected with the organisation set up for assistance to China after Mr. Laughlin Currie returned from his investigation trip to Chungking.

Mr. Currie, one of the President's White House aides, at present is chiefly concerned with aid for China.

This, plus the continued increasing shipment of planes and volunteer pilots and instructors to China, tends to contradict the recent report that a change in American policy in the Far East is contemplated.

PEACE DISCOURAGED

One commentator in the Washington Post says that the revival of suggestions that a time has arrived to reach a peaceful settlement with Japan is being generally discouraged.

Unquestionably, it is stated, Japan would have sharply to revise her policy before the United States could possibly revise hers, and there is no sign of the necessary change in Tokyo.

Aid to China will certainly be on an expanding scale during the next few months, according to well-informed circles, and the picture of the war in China is expected to change considerably within the next six months.

By this time, it is confidently expected, China will have an air force of American aircraft superior to the planes Japan is now using in China.

The situation is then expected to be not whether Japan is likely to move northward to Siberia or southward to the Dutch East Indies but whether she can pos-

China's New Financial Principles

A lengthy manifesto issued by the Third National Finance Conference emphasised the equal importance of the military and economic phases of the war.

To strengthen China's economic and financial position four general principles, the manifesto revealed, were laid down by the Conference:

1. Establishment of a national financial system which aims at the unification of national finance as the foundation for a modern state;

2. Establishment of a self-government financial system which aims at the enforcement of the new system as a foundation for self-government;

3. Improvement of the taxation administration and taxation system which aims at the readjustment of land tax, abolition of miscellaneous exorbitant levies and unification of tax collection;

4. Enforcement of the food and land policies which aims at the sufficiency of army and civilian food and equalisation of land-ownership in realisation of the principle of the people's livelihood.

In addition, important resolutions relative to China's currency, trade and monopoly policies were passed at the Conference.

The manifesto called upon the whole nation to co-operate in executing these principles and resolutions so as to bring resistance and reconstruction to a successful conclusion. (Central News).

No refund of rates in respect of vacant tenements will be granted unless such rates have been paid during and within the month of July, 1941, nor unless application is made for such refund within fifteen days from the expiration of the Quarter.

In order to ensure correct service in future, owners and occupiers of tenements are requested kindly to fill in particulars of their permanent addresses on the space provided for that purpose on the reverse side of the Notices for the Third Quarter, 1941.

U.S. MERCHANT MARINE

CONTROL VESTED IN GOVERNMENT

WASHINGTON, June 29 (Reuter).—Legislation granting President Roosevelt's Government virtual control over the American Merchant Marine for national defence purposes, was approved unanimously by the Senate Commerce Committee.

The committee added several amendments to the Bill, which had been rushed through the House of Representatives in an effort to give the Maritime Commission control of ships needed to deal with the shortage of shipping facilities.

The Bill empowers the Maritime Commission to issue warrants to all ships documented in the U.S. owned by its citizens or foreign ships whose owners wish to be included.

Under the Bill only "warrant ships" can obtain priority in ports for loading, docking, repair and other facilities, and the Maritime Commission could control cargo destinations and operations, including rates.

Five thousand dollars and imprisonment up to two years can be imposed under the Bill for failure to abide by the orders of the Maritime Commission.

OFFICIAL ACCOUNT OF NAZI OPERATIONS AGAINST RUSSIA

LONDON, June 29 (Reuter)—THE LONG AWAITED OFFICIAL ACCOUNT OF GERMAN OPERATIONS AGAINST RUSSIA appeared this morning in a lengthy communique issued in dated sections beginning with June 22, the first day of the hostilities.

It notably claims enormous destruction of Russian aircraft amounting to 2,582 by the evening of the second day's operations.

The German communique states that in the early hours of June 22, the German East Army crossed the border on a broad front. German forces thrust into the centre of the Russian troops which were being concentrated for an attack.

In some sectors German forces broke through strong frontier fortifications on the very first day. Violent Russian counter-attacks collapsed and the enemy suffered heaviest losses.

The Luftwaffe took a meritorious part and formations thereof hurled themselves upon the enemy. Despite the enemy's strong numerical superiority, the Luftwaffe attained supremacy in the air in the east on the first day.

AERIAL COMBAT

In aerial combat 322 Red planes were shot down by fighters and anti-aircraft fire. Together with machines destroyed on the ground, the Russian air force lost a total of 1,811 planes on June 22.

German losses on this day were 35.

The next section of the communique, dealing with events on June 23, states that the enemy carried out fresh counter-attacks against the head of our attacking column. In this trial of strength, the German soldier remained victorious.

All Russian thrusts were repulsed, some being broken in bloody hand to hand fighting. The fort of Grodno was taken after a hard fight. By the evening of June 23, Soviet planes destroyed had increased to 2,582.

Detailing operations on June 24, the communique states that the fortress of Brest-Litovsk was attacked by our heaviest artillery and taken by storm.

On the same day we captured Vilna and Kovno.

On June 25, the Russian Army attempted to stem the German advance with innumerable tanks, attempting either to cut communications or break through the ring closing in on them.

ANTI-TANK SQUADS

The German motorised army, in conjunction with anti-tank squads, however, prevailed with the support of anti-aircraft artillery and air force.

Even new giant Russian tanks were defeated by the courage of the German soldier and the excellence of his weapons.

At the end of the first day of this fighting, 1,200 Russian tanks had been destroyed by the Army and 97 by air formations.

On June 26 German troops in the Balkan area made a daring advance and crossed the River Duna at several points. The town of Dunauburg fell into our hands. All enemy efforts to stem our advance by desperate counter-attacks were frustrated.

Surface and submarine forces of the German Navy carried out a number of operations against the Soviet Navy. In East Baltic, a Soviet destroyer was sunk by a mine and the cruiser Maxim Gorky was severely damaged.

German submarines destroyed two Soviet submarines. German motor torpedo-boats sank two destroyers, a torpedo-boat and a submarine.

An attempt of two Soviet destroyers to attack Constanza was frustrated by coastal batteries. After a short bombardment one of them exploded and the other made off at top speed.

SERIOUS LACK OF STRATEGIC MATERIALS IN UNITED STATES

WASHINGTON, June 29 (Reuter)—A series of major "failures" and "delays" has resulted in a serious lack of strategic materials in the United States, declares a sharply critical report on defence progress issued by the House of Representatives military committee yesterday.

The committee's report, based on weeks of study, says that the deficiencies are attributable largely to the "absence of a responsible head with authority and power", and also the fact that national preoccupation in recent years has been with social reform rather than national security.

NEED OF VISION

The report refers to the need of "vision" on the part of Government officials and adds: "The administration has been prone, when difficult problems arose, to shirk them by creating another body only to add to the confusion of the assortment of agencies which have."

Concerning specific shortages of strategic materials, it has been stated that "it has been found that the inadequate power and transportation facilities, in particular, are available in summing up, the primary cause of the lack of strategic materials is the failure to carry out the program of strategic materials.
